Chica Radio Girls documentary 57' 2011

Directed by Elsbeth van Noppen and Natasja Morales. 'If you are born as a nickel you will never make it to become a dime' This is how a Dutch proverb reads. However, the documentary 'Chica Radio Girls' shows that it is definitely possible to become an exception to this rule. We watch how Selaica (18), Joanne (17) and Eva (22) are struggling to make it in their lives, involving ups and downs. How do you overcome the difficulties at home, with friends and at school, so that you can focus on your own life and your own dreams?
